• Moving forward with traditional festival planning – strongly encouraged for everyone involved with Crawfest to think about how their position will function if the festival became entirely online or a hybrid online/person model of a music fest!

• Rely on teamwork

• Don’t be afraid to reach out

• We’re all in this together!