Fall Activities Expo 2020

Tulane Equestrian
What we are!

- We are a club sport!
- No cuts → anyone is welcome to join, and no prior experience needed!
- Anyone is welcome to show as well, and we need riders of all levels for shows.
- The Equestrian team associated with Tulane University.
What we do!

- We practice 1-2 times per week at Equest Farm in City Park.
- We usually attend about 3 weekends of showing a semester. (we are not able to show Fall 2020 due to COVID- stay tuned for updates about Spring 2021!)
- We practice for one hour, but make sure to allot a total of 3 hours for each practice to factor in travel time and getting ready/taking care of the horses.
- We usually have a variety of social events as well ranging from dinners, fundraisers and mixers with other teams. However, this will also be restricted this semester due to COVID.
There is a $45 club sport fee.

The lesson package is $500 and gets 10 lessons to be used throughout the semester. The lesson package does expire at the end of the semester.

If you choose to show, there is an additional $45 IHSA fee.

- Each class is $35, and most people do 1-2 classes per day over the course of a 2-3 day show weekend.
- Hotel and travel are covered by Tulane for showing, but food for the weekend I is paid for out of pocket.
