What is NRHH?

NRHH is the National Residence Hall Honorary, a national organization with a chapter on Tulane’s campus.

NRHH is for residence hall leaders devoted to service for and recognition of others (both on- and off-campus).
Service
An important aspect of NRHH is serving others—both on- and off-campus.

Recognition
The other important aspect of NRHH is recognizing others’ accomplishments.
Organizational Structure

NACURH (National)

The National Association of College & University Residence Halls.

SWACURH (Regional)

The Southwest Affiliate of College & University Residence Halls.

TULANE
(University)

The Magnolia Chapter of NRHH.
Magnolia Chapter Exec Board

Bridget Fish
Advisor

Brigid Bendig
President

Dylan Lucia
Director of Marketing and Recruitment

Izabella Lilly
Director of Recognition

Cherissa Lindsay
Director of Service

Isabelle Cunis
Secretary/Historian

Vacant
Director of External Communications
Membership Requirements

- Lived on campus for one semester
  - First-years: you are eligible next semester!
- Currently live on campus when entering the Chapter
- Good academic standing
- Good conduct standing
Applications & Nominations for Membership

Application
For you to apply for membership into the Magnolia Chapter.

Nomination
For nominating an individual for membership into the Magnolia Chapter.

bit.ly/32pXb1y

bit.ly/32oLtUH
Selection

Nationally, NRHH Chapters must have a cap of 1% of their on-campus population.

The Magnolia Chapter membership cap is 40 members.
Past/Current Projects

More Condom Dispensers
In partnership with the Well for Health Promotion.

Residence Hall Glass Recycling
In partnership with the Tulane Glass Studio.

Halloween Decoration Recognition
In Residence Halls and surrounding neighborhoods.

Home Building
In partnership with Habitat for Humanity.
OTMs!

AKA Of the Months
Contact

nrhh.magnolia@tulane.edu

IG: @tulanenrhh